HOW YOU CAN HELP BUILD A BETTER FUTURE HERE IN WEST LANCASHIRE

WE NEED YOUR HELP

David Cameron and the Conservative Party, locally and nationally are busy cleaning up the mess left by Labour.

But we need the help of every Conservative supporter in West Lancashire to do so.

Labour don't want to tackle the problems they created – the debt crisis, the broken society, the red tape that shackles our public services. And they are using funds from the trade unions to campaign against the positive changes we want to make to Britain.

Across the page, you'll see how we are tackling Labour's legacy and by joining as a Member, you'll be helping us maintain a strong, effective campaigning presence that will allow us to build a better future here in West Lancashire.

As a member, you can be involved as much or as little as you like. Two local members recount their experiences across the page, but however you want to be involved being a member has real benefits

Skelmersdale public relations consultant David Sudworth has had an interest in local politics that stretches back to his time as News Editor at local newspaper, the Advertiser.

When David joined the local Conservatives he was a little concerned about the reaction he would receive. However, as David says "I needn't have worried. I was warmly welcomed and the Association Chairman asked me if I could put my journalism skills to good use by writing press releases for the local party. That's the great thing about West Lancashire Conservatives, there is a way for everyone to be involved. I also got involved in the political discussion suppers, the Disraeli Club and recently became a local councillor after two years in the party."

Ormskirk business-woman Amanda Shaw has a busy life, running her own company as well as bringing up three young boys with her husband, Jonathan. But she still finds time for politics.

About membership of the local Conservatives, Amanda says, "I was initially asked to get involved by a fellow party member. I must admit that, up until then, I'd never thought about it, but decided I'd join up. I've attended several local Conservative functions which are very enjoyable and even stood for council.

"I've received a lot of encouragement from fellow party members who have helped me to learn the ropes."
